What Did you Meme?

A Discussion about Avoiding Misinformation at FSU

This discussion on media literacy will feature examples of logical fallacies in memes and how misinformation spreads in online space. Facilitated by FSU Communication Leadership Lab and the Argumentation & Advocacy class. Tuesday, April 5 at 2 pm in 161 Gira CCIT.

Ladder of Prejudice ---> Bridge to Civility at Allegany College of MD

Interactive displays and activities in the ACM College Center facilitated by Academic Development, the Teacher Education Program, and the College to Community Partnership Center. Participate in diversity activities that explore acts of prejudice, while offering words of encouragement and support to others. April 6 and 7 from 10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Food for Fines during National Library Week

Reduce your library fines by turning in cans or boxes of non-perishable food. Benefits the Western Maryland Food Bank. Participate at the libraries: Frostburg, George's Creek, South Cumberland, Washington St., and Westernport. April 7 from 11:00 am to 6:00 pm

Chalk It Up to Civility

Chalk It Up to Civility: A Community Collaboration!

People of all ages are welcome to do some "chalking"! Draw and write inspiring messages, words of encouragement and kindness. The goal is to provide opportunity for collaborative conversation in spite of difference, develop consensus in the place of division, and create connectedness in our community. Participate at the libraries: Frostburg, George's Creek, South Cumberland, Washington St., and Westernport. April 7 from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm

Social Media Civility: Influencing Community and Strategy Online & On the Ground

Diverse perspectives on how to contribute to constructive and responsive communication that connects and moves people across channels, modalities, and purposes. Features Leader-in-Residence and Panelists who Lead Local Communication Campaigns: Dr. Dorene Ciletti, Mandela Echefu, Ian Robinson, Ashley Swinford, and Ashli Workman. Thursday, April 7 at 6 pm in FSU LUC Atkinson Room and online
